--- GB/T 10961-1989. Woodworking machines - Symbols

1 Scope

GB/T 10961-2010 is the Chinese national standard on woodworking machines - symbols for indications, in the field of wood technology. The /T suffix marks it as a recommended standard: it is not compulsory by itself, but it becomes binding as soon as a contract, a tender or a customer specification calls it up - which in practice is how most foreign buyers meet it. It was issued on 10 November 2010 by the General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine of the People's Republic of China; Standardization Administration of China, and has been in force since 1 March 2011. Classification: ICS 79.120.10, CCS J65. This page is published from the official record of the standard held by the Chinese standards administration: the identification, the dates, the classification and the issuing body are taken from there. The clause text, the tables and the numeric limits are in the document itself, which is delivered complete in English translation.

This standard specifies the operation of woodworking machines with a variety of indicators. This standard applies to woodworking machines (hereinafter referred to as the machine) operating instructions signs, operation panels and signs.
