What this standard covers

This standard specifies the administration, commerce and transport between trading partners for electronic data interchange (EDI) in the application of the price/sales catalog message (PRICAT) definition. It is usually sent by the seller to the buyer, indicating the goods and services provided by the relevant pricing and catalog information packets, also be sent by the buyer to the seller, stating that the buyer on the label or packaging and other special requirements or provide for the previously received Price/sales catalog response (accept or reject). This standard applies to both domestic and international trade. It is based on a common business practice, not limited to a particular type of business or industry.
