1 Scope

GB/T 47304-2026 is the Chinese national standard covering GACP for medicinal plants - the seed and site, the cultivation and the restrictions on agrochemicals, the timing of harvest that determines the active content, the primary processing and drying, and the traceability of a batch back to a field. The quality of a traditional medicine is largely decided before it reaches a factory. First edition, in force since 1 October 2026, under the National Forestry and Grassland Administration. It was issued on 31 March 2026 and takes effect on 1 October 2026, as a first edition. This page is published from the official record of the 2026 edition; the clause text of a standard this recent is not yet in circulation, and the figures, limits and tables it contains are those of the document itself, delivered in full with the English translation.

This document defines the terminology related to the proper cultivation and harvesting of medicinal plants, and specifies the proper cultivation, harvesting, primary processing, and packaging of medicinal plants. Technical measures and methods for loading, storage and transportation are described, along with corresponding verification methods. This document applies to the technical measures taken by producers of medicinal plants, which are cultivated, harvested, and distributed as agricultural products, to improve quality and yield. Technical measures and methods.
