What this standard covers

This standard stipulates the methods and requirements for carrying out the quality inspection of pollutant discharge permits, the preparation work for the inspection and the main inspection content. This standard is applicable to guide the technical institutions of the ecological and environmental authorities or their entrusted organizations to check the quality of the pollutant discharge permits that have been issued. The quality inspection of the proposed issuance of pollutant discharge permits and the self-inspection of the quality of pollutant discharge permits by pollutant discharge units can refer to this standard.
