1 Foreword

JR/T 0306-2024 was issued by People's Bank of China on 29 July 2024 and took effect the same day.

The JR/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 15 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the basic composition of the commercial bill business information model (hereinafter referred to as the business information model) and the relationship between them, the extension mechanism of the business information model, and gives an example of the commercial bill extended business information model for pledge and rediscount bills in the informative appendix. This standard is applicable to the construction of commercial bill-related information systems guiding the bill market infrastructure and relevant participating institutions and related work in the bill field in the general message library of China's financial industry.

JR/T 0306-2024 falls under ICS 35.240.40, in the field of information technology.

This catalogue holds 93 other JR/T standards in that field.

In this catalogue, JR/T standards carry edition years from 1993 to 2026.
