1 Foreword

JTS 101-2014 was issued by Ministry of Transport on 12 June 2014 and took effect the same day.

It replaces the earlier edition JTJ 200-2001.

The JTS prefix, without a suffix, marks a mandatory standard: within its scope, compliance is required.

2 Scope Preview

This provision applies to the preparation of technical standards for the construction and maintenance of water transport projects.

JTS 101-2014 falls under ICS 93.140, in the field of civil engineering.

This catalogue holds 48 other JTS standards in that field.

In this catalogue, JTS standards carry edition years from 2007 to 2024.
