Introduction

At present, more and more organizations have carried out social responsibility management activities and achieved corresponding performance. Social responsibility activities and their results have been the concerns of the organization's stakeholders and society. The development of such activities requires systematic and comprehensive evaluation of social responsibility performance.

This measure of the implementation of organizational social responsibility helps organizations to continuously improve their social responsibility performance.

The organization's social responsibility performance is related to its practical results of fulfilling social responsibility and the feelings of its stakeholders. Social responsibility performance on the one hand, it is not limited to simply looking at its social responsibility report; on the other hand, it is not appropriate to use only on-site auditors for routine certification.

formula. The evaluation of social responsibility performance can only be solved by adopting a comprehensive and systematic approach.

This standard focuses on the process management capabilities and outcome performance of organizations in fulfilling their social responsibilities, with the aim of encouraging organizations to continually improve their social responsibilities.

Relevant management processes and social responsibility performance to promote a social responsibility strategy combined with day-to-day operations to ensure consistent strategy and policy implementation Sexuality, and is committed to improving the sense of social responsibility and ability of the organization and all members. By reporting social responsibility management maturity and performance levels the results of the evaluation provide trust to the organization's stakeholders.

This standard provides a method for the organization to evaluate its social responsibility management process and social responsibility performance, as well as for the organization's interests.

Guidance is provided by stakeholders and third-party certification bodies for performance evaluation and certification of social responsibility.

According to the differences in organizational social responsibility management level and performance, this standard divides the results of organizational social responsibility performance evaluation into three levels.

One-star (baseline compliance level), two-star (system management level), three-star (responsibility mature level).

This standard and RB/T 178-2018 "Conformity Assessment Social Responsibility Requirements" together constitute the recognition of China's social responsibility evaluation activities the certificate recognizes industry standards.
