

INDUSTRY STANDARD OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

SN/T 4743.4-2017

Inspection and quarantine procedure for pre-export quarantine of race horses in international equestrian events

国际马术比赛参赛马境外检验检疫监管规程

(English Translation)

Issued on: May 12, 2017

Implemented on: December 1, 2017

Issued by: The General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine

Table of Contents

Foreword
1 Scope
2 Normative references
3 Preparation before quarantine
4 Offshore isolation and quarantine

Foreword

This part is the fourth part of the SN/T 4743 series of standards.

This part is drafted in accordance with the rules given in GB/T 1.1-2009.

This part is proposed and managed by the National Certification and Accreditation Administration.

This section drafted by. Guangdong Entry-Exit Inspection and Quarantine Bureau of the People's Republic of China.

1 Scope

This part of SN/T 4743 stipulates the procedures, contents and requirements for quarantine outside the international equestrian events.

This section applies to overseas quarantine of horses going to China to participate in international equestrian events and returning to the country after the game.

2 Normative references

The following documents are indispensable for the application of this document. For dated references, only dated versions apply to this article.

Pieces. For undated references, the latest edition (including all amendments) applies to this document.

List of Class 1 and Class 2 Infectious Diseases and Parasitic Diseases of Entry Animals of the People's Republic of China

3 Preparation before quarantine

3.1

Prepare an overseas quarantine work plan.

3.2

Review of the People's Republic of China Entry Animal and Plant Quarantine Permit and collect and collate information on on-site field visits to overseas horse isolation sites and assessment of accreditation documents, basic information on overseas quarantine sites and identity information of participating horses. General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine (hereinafter referred to as AQSIQ) Obtained bilateral protocols and quarantine health requirements related to overseas quarantine tasks.

4 Offshore isolation and quarantine

4.1

In accordance with the bilateral protocol, work with the veterinarian of the competent authority of the exporting country/region to agree on a specific quarantine work plan. Understanding exporting countries/regions Regional horse disease epidemic and control. If there is no protocol, it shall be implemented in accordance with the sanitary requirements for quarantine permit quarantine.

4.2

Check whether the certificate template provided by the exporting country/regional quarantine authority meets the requirements of the AQSIQ.

4.3

Check whether the horse isolation field in the exporting country/region meets the quarantine requirements.

4.4

Check the quarantine preparation work, check the quarantine control and disinfection work procedures, and check whether the feed, vaccine, medicine, etc. used in the field are Meet the quarantine requirements.

4.5

Check the International Equestrian Federation held by horses entering the quarantine or other international passports recognized by international equestrian organizations;

Whether the identity information of the one-checked horse is consistent with the quarantine permit and relevant certification materials.

4.6

Assist the official veterinarian in the exporting country to check the clinical health status of the horses one by one, and start quarantine after no abnormality.

4.7

Understand whether the horse owner or athlete's requirements for horse care, training or welfare are in compliance with bilateral protocols or quarantine requirements.

4.8

Assist the official veterinarian of the exporting country/region to conduct a laboratory test of the participating horses in accordance with the protocol or quarantine hygiene requirements.

4.9

During the segregation period, it shall be confirmed that the horse has been vaccinated in accordance with the requirements of the Protocol and approved by the veterinary authority of the exporting country/region.

The object is used to drive out parasites inside and outside the horse.

4.10

Confirmation of the clinical examination of the participating horses by the official veterinarian of the exporting country/region within 24 hours before the exit, without any clinical epidemiology Symptoms and issue a quarantine certificate.

4.11

Check whether the content and format of the certificate meet the requirements. Check that your health is suitable for transportation.