

INDUSTRY STANDARD OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

SN/T 4745-2017

Protocol for disinfection of import and export terrestrial animals

进出境陆生动物消毒技术规范

(English Translation)

Issued on: May 12, 2017

Implemented on: December 1, 2017

Issued by: The General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine

Table of Contents

- Foreword
- 1 Scope
- 2 Normative references
- 3 Operating procedures
 - 3.1 Develop a work plan
 - 3.2 Personnel preparation
 - 3.3 Disinfectant and preparation

Foreword

This standard was drafted in accordance with the rules given in GB/T 1.1-2009.

This standard is proposed and managed by the National Certification and Accreditation Administration.

This standard was drafted. Jilin Entry-Exit Inspection and Quarantine Bureau of the People's Republic of China, Shanghai Entry and Exit Inspection of the People's Republic of China Epidemic situation.

1 Scope

This standard specifies the procedures and requirements for the handling and quarantine of inbound and outbound terrestrial animals.

This standard applies to inbound and outbound terrestrial animals and their means of delivery, cages, bedding materials, forage, on-site inspection sites, isolation sites and personnel.

Anti-epidemic disinfection.

2 Normative references

The following documents are indispensable for the application of this document. For dated references, only the dated version applies to this article.

Pieces. For undated references, the latest edition (including all amendments) applies to this document.

SN/T 1270 Inbound and outbound bulk cargo disinfection procedures Disinfection Technical Specifications (2002) (Ministry of Health)

3.1 Develop a work plan

The inspection and quarantine institution shall find the epidemic and disease according to the source, type, quantity, means of transport, packaging nature and on-site inspection of the animals entering and leaving the country.

The actual situation of suspected dyeing or pollution, the requirements for epidemic prevention and disinfection, and the formulation of work plans. The work plan should include disinfection objects, disinfection methods, and elimination.

Selection of toxic drugs, disinfection sites, disinfection time, implementers, disinfection equipment, protective equipment, etc.

Technical requirements, clear verification indicators, methods and effects evaluation.

3.2 Personnel preparation

Personnel engaged in the epidemic prevention and treatment of inland and outbound animals shall carry out relevant laws and regulations, technical standards, on-site operations and professional knowledge.

Training of knowledge should be authorized by a qualified institution. The on-site anti-epidemic and disinfection personnel are determined according to the workload, generally not less than two people. Transporting animals Vehicle disinfection should be carried out under the guidance of on-site inspection and quarantine personnel.

3.3.1 Selection of disinfectant

3.3.1.1

Choose to use highly effective, broad-spectrum, fast-acting, long-lasting disinfectant, commonly used disinfectant name, applicable object and scope, and use Method, concentration, time of action, etc., see Appendix A.

3.3.1.2

Priority is given to disinfectants that are safe for humans and animals, have no damage to facilities, equipment and quarantine objects, and have little environmental pollution.

3.3.1.3

Select to use a disinfectant with an approval number and within the validity period.

3.3.2 Use of disinfectant

3.3.2.1

Disinfectants should be prepared and used in strict accordance with the instructions and relevant specifications, and should be in accordance with the current distribution principle.

Appendix B.

3.3.2.2

The antagonism of different disinfection penalties should be considered when using, to avoid mixing.