1 Foreword

WW/T 0026-2010 was issued by State Administration of Cultural Heritage on 1 July 2010 and has been in force since 1 September 2010.

The WW/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 11 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the basic terminology, disease classification and illustration of the collection of paper artifacts and diseases. This standard applies to the classification and presentation of paper artifacts in paper artifacts investigation, disease assessment, protection and repair program preparation, protection and repair work record production and paper cultural relic protection work.
