1 Foreword

YD/T 6095-2024 was issued by Ministry of Industry and Information Technology on 24 October 2024 and has been in force since 1 February 2025.

The YD/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 15 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the overall technical requirements for the fixed-mobile converged private line service of the next-generation network architecture based on software-defined networking (SDN)/network function virtualization (NFV), including the definition of fixed-mobile converged private line services and service functions, service scenarios, service technical requirements, system architecture and interface requirements of the services. This standard mainly regulates the fixed-mobile converged private line services of the next-generation network architecture based on SDN/NFV. This standard is applicable to the next-generation network architecture based on SDN/NFV.

YD/T 6095-2024 falls under ICS 33.030, in the field of telecommunications.

This catalogue holds 3,420 other YD/T standards in that field.

In this catalogue, YD/T standards carry edition years from 1982 to 2026.
