1 Foreword

YD/T 6614-2025 was issued by Ministry of Industry and Information Technology on 17 December 2025 and has been in force since 1 April 2026.

The YD/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 15 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the technical requirements and test methods that mobile phone products suitable for elderly users should meet in terms of age-friendliness, including display control, audio control, voice interaction, remote assistance, and emergency applications. This standard applies to the research, development, testing, and acceptance of age-friendly mobile terminals, providing a technical basis for the popularization, promotion, and application of the technology. This standard can also be used as a reference for other mobile terminal products, such as tablet computers.

YD/T 6614-2025 falls under ICS 33.050.01, in the field of telecommunications.

This catalogue holds 3,420 other YD/T standards in that field.

In this catalogue, YD/T standards carry edition years from 1982 to 2026.
