1 Foreword

YJ/T 1.6-2022 was issued by Ministry of Information Industry of the People's Republic of China on 19 September 2022 and has been in force since 18 December 2022.

It is one of 6 parts of the YJ/T 1 series.

The YJ/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

2 Scope Preview

This standard stipulates the classification of social emergency rescue teams of emergency medical rescue (hereinafter referred to as "emergency medical rescue teams") and the requirements for ability elements, organizational structure, operational capacity building, equipment construction, training drills, and ability assessment. This standard applies to the construction of emergency medical rescue teams under the guidance and management of legally registered social organizations and people's organizations.
