1 Foreword

YJ/T 31-2025 was issued by Ministry of Emergency Management on 17 April 2025 and has been in force since 18 October 2025.

The YJ/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 12 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the general requirements, training subjects, training plans, and assessment procedures for the training and assessment of hazardous chemical emergency response teams. This standard applies to hazardous chemical emergency response teams of squadron size and above. Teams smaller than squadron (excluding squadrons), part-time hazardous chemical emergency response teams, and other emergency response teams involving similar training content may refer to this standard for implementation.
