1 Foreword

YJ/T 6-2013 was issued by Ministry of Information Industry of the People's Republic of China on 17 December 2013 and has been in force since 1 May 2014.

The YJ/T prefix marks a recommended standard. It is not law in itself: it becomes binding when a contract names it, when a regulation or a mandatory standard refers to it, or when a producer declares conformity with it.

The document runs to 15 pages in English translation.

2 Scope Preview

This standard specifies the protective measures, procedures and methods for earthquake disaster emergency rescue teams to dispose of the remains of victims at the workplace. This standard applies to the on-site disposal of the remains of the victims found by the earthquake disaster emergency rescue team during the rescue process, and other emergency rescue teams can refer to it.
